	Photographs of the crowds at graduation will be taken by the Institution’s elected photographers and press photographers. These crowd shots may include images of you and your guests. It is possible that, in addition to the Institution’s own recording, television companies may be present to record, and broadcast, parts of the graduation ceremony, the area around the graduation hall or building, and interviews with graduates, staff or others in attendance. It is suggested that you avoid any such filming should you wish to avoid being recording in this way. During the graduation ceremony, and before and after in the immediate environs of the graduation hall or building, Institution elected photographers will be taking photographs of individuals and groups. These photographs will be used to publicise and celebrate the graduation ceremony and the institution. The photographs will be used by the institution for marketing purposes including the publication of the images on the institution’s website, social media channels, printed publicity material, and any other such marketing and promotion uses. It is suggested that you avoid any such photography should you wish to avoid being photographed in this way. Visual images may be held and processed in both printed and electronic format and will be used for no longer than three years from the date they are taken. Verbal consent will be sought from you and your guests for close-up pictures prior to photographs being taken. If you don't wish your photograph to be taken, you should tell the photographer when consent is requested.
Purpose 5: Calling of name	Your name, award title and classification will be read out at the ceremony immediately prior to you walking across the stage.
Purpose 6: Administration – tickets	We will need to process the names of your guests to ensure your guest appear on the guest list. We will not issue tickets but will require guests to register on arrival.
